LIFELONG LEARNING EXTENSION DEPARTMENT PROJECT REPORT 2018-19
2019-20 and 2020-21

The department of lifelong learning and extension has introduced a new syllabus that is applicable since 2019. Under this syllabus, new extension activities have been started, of giving yearly projects namely –

1. Unnati Prakalp
2. Rashtrasant Sanskar
3. Saksham

to the students of which project 3- Saksham, being a training course is optional.

Unnati Prakalp is all about doing a case study of the people who are below the poverty line and had taken advantage of the incentives and policies declared by the government for the respective class. Rashtrasant Sanskar is all about throwing light on the life of the social worker, Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj, and preparing a report on any social work performed by them.

The projects mentioned above had been given to the students for 2019 in July 2019 for a stipulated period for which the tenure terminated by December 2019. The students completed the projects under the guidance of Dr. Chandrashekhar Malviya, Department Head. Dr. C S Malviya reflected light on the topic covered under the projects and helped the students to get rid of their difficulties in completing the project. The submission of the projects was held in the first week of January 2020 for which the valuation was done by allotting internal marks to the students by Dr. C S Malviya and further valuation was done and incentive marks were given out of 10 during February 2020 by the RTM university, Nagpur. The same course was not cycled again in the year 2020-21, because of Covid-19.
