

FEEDBACK REPORT 2023 – 2024

Athawale College of Social Work, Bhandara conducted a comprehensive feedback survey for the academic session 2023–2024. This initiative was undertaken to assess the quality of education and the overall learning experience of students enrolled in the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) and Master of Social Work (MSW) programs.

The feedback process aimed to evaluate multiple aspects of teaching effectiveness, including subject knowledge, communication skills, teaching methodologies, and student engagement. By collecting input directly from students, the college sought to identify both strengths and areas requiring improvement to enhance the overall academic environment.

The active participation of students in the feedback process reflects their commitment to the institution's growth and their dedication to academic excellence. The insights gathered will serve as a foundation for implementing constructive changes, ensuring that the college continues to provide a high standard of education and fosters a supportive learning environment.

Through this feedback mechanism, Athawale College reaffirms its dedication to continuous improvement and its mission of empowering students with the skills and knowledge essential for their professional and personal growth.

Action Taken Feedback Report

Session : 2023-2024

Athawale College of Social Work, Bhandara, reviewed the feedback report and took necessary actions regarding the teaching staff. A meeting was organized for all teaching staff to discuss the feedback criteria and address areas requiring improvement.

Knowledge Base:

According to the feedback, 80–85% of students rated the teachers' knowledge as "good" or "very good." Based on this, the principal warned the teachers to enhance their subject knowledge.

Communication Skills:

Feedback revealed that 81–86% of students rated the teachers' communication skills as "good" or "very good." The principal urged the teachers to improve their communication skills for better student engagement.

Sincerity and Commitment:

Approximately 83–88% of students rated teachers' sincerity and commitment as "good" or "very good." The principal advised the teachers to strengthen their dedication and commitment to students.

Interest Generation in Teaching:

With only 78–83% of students rating teachers' ability to generate interest as "good" or "very good," the principal directed teachers to adopt innovative teaching methods to make lessons more engaging.

Integration of Course Material with Broader Perspectives:

About 82–87% of students rated this aspect as "good" or "very good." The principal advised teachers to enhance their ability to integrate course material with environmental or broader societal issues to provide a wider perspective.

Integration of Content with Other Courses:

Feedback showed that 83–88% of students rated this as "good" or "very good." The principal urged teachers to improve their ability to interconnect content with other subjects for a holistic learning experience.

Accessibility:

Around 81–86% of students rated teachers' accessibility in and outside the classroom as "good" or "very good." The principal encouraged teachers to increase their availability to support students more effectively.

Evaluation Methods:

Approximately 82–87% of students rated teachers’ ability to design quizzes, assignments, tests, and projects as “good” or “very good.” The principal emphasized the importance of improving assessment methods to evaluate students’ understanding effectively.

Provision of Feedback Time:

About 83–88% of students noted that the provision of sufficient time for feedback was “good” or “very good.” The principal advised teachers to allocate more time for constructive feedback.
